The skills and knowledge gained from this course will enable you to work as a counsellor to help people identify, define and work through vocational, educational, relationship, social and emotional areas.

The role of a counsellor can be very diverse, with practitioners working in a variety of areas and with a range of demographics. This interactive and supportive course will guide you through a number of strategies when working with clients and its practical application will provide you with valuable real life industry experience that will allow you to build upon the skills developed throughout the course.

YOU’LL LEARN TO*
• Apply counselling theories and therapies
• Use effective interview skills
• Develop, facilitate and monitor case management
• Support diverse clients
• Recognise and respond to individuals at risk
• Reflect on and improve your own counselling skills

*Refer to Australis College website for full list of units.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
Careers and titles vary across different industry sectors. Possible job titles relevant to this qualification include:
• Counsellor
• Problem gambling worker
• Family support counsellor
• Crisis worker
• Case manager

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS
To gain entry into this course it is recommended that candidates have sufficient relevant work experience to indicate likely success at this level of qualification in a job role involving:
• The self-directed application of knowledge with substantial depth in some areas
• The exercise of independent judgement and decision-making
• The application of relevant technical and other skills.

Before enrolment, all prospective students complete a short phone interview and, if necessary, an Australis College Skills Assessment to ensure they have the basic skills needed to be successful in completing the qualification.

Students wishing to apply for VET FEE-HELP are required either to produce their Year 12 Australian Senior Secondary Certificate of Education or complete Government designated online core skills assessment before they are deemed eligible to receive this government loan.
