CHC52015 DIPLOMA OF COMMUNITY SERVICES Case Management

Are you passionate about helping those in need?

COURSE DETAILS

The skills and knowledge gained from this qualification will empower you to work in a variety of positions in the community and enrich the lives of individuals with varied needs. This may range from assisting clients in accessing their community, or offering assistance to clients with complex needs while maintaining a dignified lifestyle. This interactive and supportive course offers five specialisations to choose from that will guide you through a number of techniques in order to provide a client with a holistic approach to wellbeing. You'll be required to complete 100 hours of Placement, which will provide you with valuable practical experience and allow you to build upon the skills and knowledge learnt throughout the course.

YOU'LL LEARN TO*:

- Communicate effectively and advocate on behalf of clients
- Employ counselling techniques
- Work one-on-one and in groups
- Apply all aspects of case management including complex assessment and referral
- Implement community development strategies
- Understand the impacts of sociological factors on clients

*Refer to Australis College website for full list of units.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES
